DD / GIB 19: Copy (1633) of Ruling by the Archbishop of York, 1617. 1633. Letter from Tobie, Archbishop of Yorke, Primate of England and Metropolitane. To: the Minister, Churchwardens and other inhabitants of the parish or chapelry of Heptonstall in the diocese of York. Thomas Naylor, Thomas Greenwood of Coulden [later also "Coudinge"], John Greenwood of Wadsworth, Thomas Greenwood of Learings, Thomas Greenwood of Edge, Thomas Bentley, Robert Ledyard [later also "Ledyerd"], Richard Horsfall, Richard Wadsworth, John Greenwood of Horshold [later also "Horseholde"], John Crabtree, Symen Horsfall [later "Simeon" Horsfall], Thomas Crabtree, William Mitchell of Highgreenwood, John Horsfall, William Mitchell, Richard Hardie, Richard Naylor, Jonas Thomas, and Thomas Ridge, inhabitants within the said parish shewed to the Abp in his Chancery Court that the people of the parish in recent years had much increased in number so that "there is not convenient placing for them in the said church to make use of in time of divine service", and requested permission to erect a loft for their "more ease and further convenience, there sit, kneel and pray in time of divine service and sermons". The Abp had granted that they should erect a loft in the north side of the church, 24yds in length by 5yds in breadth, to be builded from the pulpit towards the west end, and such loft had been built. Therefore now the Abp assigns and confirms the loft to the persons above named, "to make use of in tyme of divine service and sermons and there to be placed every of them according to their degree and calling", and requiring the vicar, churchwardens and parishioners to allow these men to enjoy the loft without any let or molestations. Given at York under the seal of the office of our Vicar General, 11 Aug 1617. The original whereof was sealed and signed in one place "Nathaniel Dodsworth" and in another place Richard New House, Public Notary. Part of Gibson Collection Bundle 12/7.
