

|              | 2010                                                                               |                    |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| 29 September | Richard Oastler, Yorkshire Slavery and the Mill Owners of the Calder Valley        | John Hargreaves    |
| 13 October   | Huge and Mighty Forms: the giant's castle in landscape tradition                   | Jeremy Harte       |
| 27 October   | AGM - Local History followed by 'A Hebden Bridge Childhood'                        | Justine Wyatt      |
| 3 November   | AGM - Literary & Scientific followed by 'The Day the Sun Went Out'                 | John Billingsly    |
| 10 November  | Yorkshire Dales Textile Mills                                                      | George Ingle       |
| 24 November  | Bridging Centuries, an evening focusing on the 500th anniversary of the Old Bridge | Various speakers   |
| 8 December   | Religion and the People in the Upper Calder Valley in the age of religious revival | Ted Royle          |
|              | 2011                                                                               |                    |
| 12 January   | The Buildings of Hebden Bridge                                                     | Alan Petford       |
| 26 January   | West Yorkshire Place-Names in Context                                              | George Redmonds    |
| 9 February   | The Lancashire & Yorkshire railway                                                 | Noel Coates        |
| 23 February  | Summat A'Nowt: what's not in t'book!                                               | Steve Murty        |
| 9 March      | Discovering Lumbutts & Mankinholes, a pictorial journey                            | Glyn Lee           |
| 23 March     | Rushbearing                                                                        | Garry Stringfellow |